Comfort ye my people

Lent Course 2022

A five-week course for groups and individuals as we journey through Lent

With an Introduction from the Bishop of Chichester

DIOCESE OF
CHICHESTER

Bishop Martin introduces the Lent Course.

'I'm very well, thank you.' That's the response we normally give when people ask. It takes quite a lot of courage to say something else. So we live with the stuff that makes us not very well. And that can be a very heavy burden to bear.

The season of Lent offers us an opportunity to lay down the things that burden us. Lent is a season of safety when we can admit that not all is well. It gives us permission to review our lives and be honest about how we damage ourselves, other people and the world we inhabit.

Jesus Christ says to us, 'Come to me all you that are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest' (Matthew 11:28). And it is very often a hauntingly beautiful visual image or sound that prompts us to explore this offer of rest and comfort.

The soul that is wearied by the effort of shutting out the hurts and fears within is unlikely to welcome more tasks, more tests, more words and instructions. It is the beauty of God's unconditional love that comforts and releases us from what we fear.

In the 5 sessions of this year's Lent Course, we are offered beautiful images, stories and songs that speak of the God who knows us and loves us. In each session someone will speak to you about the comfort that they have found in these gifts. They will invite you to begin your own exploration of how God might lift your burdens and give you space and time to rest.

I wish to thank those who have contributed to this Course and had the courage to say that, though it is not easy, it is possible to live well.

I hope that you, inspired by them, will find that comfort, hope and joy emerge from your Lenten preparation for Holy Week and the triumph of the resurrection.

As one of our Mission action plans we thought it would be good to have a book for Lent. I asked a member of our congregation what would make a good inspiring Lent book which we could discuss after Lent over a glass of wine. This is what was recommended. I have ordered some copies for church. If you would like to join in please email me, frmarkssc@msn.com

Proof of Heaven: A Neurosurgeon's Journey into the Afterlife by Dr Eben Alexander, III

THE #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING ACCOUNT OF A NEUROSURGEON'S OWN NEAR-DEATH EXPERIENCE.

Internationally acclaimed neurosurgeon Dr Eben Alexander always considered himself a man of science. His unwavering belief in evidence-based medicine fuelled a career in the top medical institutions of the world. But all this was set to change.

One morning in 2008 he fell into a coma after suffering a rare form of bacterial meningitis. Scans of his brain revealed massive damage. Death was deemed the most likely outcome. As his family prepared themselves for the worst, something miraculous happened. Dr Alexander's brain went from near total inactivity to awakening. He made a full recovery but he was never the same. He woke certain of the infinite reach of the soul, he was certain of a life beyond death.

In this astonishing book, Dr Alexander shares his experience, pieced together from the notes he made as soon as he was able to write again. Unlike other accounts of near-death experiences, he is able to explain in depth why his brain was incapable of fabricating the journey he experienced. His story is one of profound beauty and inspiration.

is keen to appoint two choral scholars and one organ scholar to start after Easter 2022.

Minimum age 11, open to those of all faiths and none. Successful applicants will be asked to offer approximately 66% attendance across the year, singing in our choir on Sundays, with the organ scholar gradually taking on some playing as and when they are able (free access available for organ practice).

In return we will pay for regular lessons with a specialist teacher (DBS checked). No previous experience is required - although piano skills up to grade 5 are an advantage for the organ scholarship - but enthusiasm is by far the most important attribute. We particularly want to encourage those who may not otherwise have the chance to receive individual lessons.

Opportunities to give concerts and take exams in addition to regular contribution to worship. Fees paid for singing at weddings. The scholarships will be renewed termly subject to mutual agreement.

Audition will be by informal interview, during which you will be asked to sing or play a simple song/piece that you enjoy. Further information available from

Matthew Cooke, Director of Music: 07776 075275

E: southdownsorganist@gmail.com to whom applications should be sent by Monday 14th March 2022.

Plough Sunday Service

We were very grateful to Nigel Dallyn for bringing the tractor and match plough to our Plough Sunday Service at the beginning of February. After the readings 'The Everlasting Mercy' by John Masefield and Matthew 6 'Do Not Worry', Fr Mark led us out into the churchyard where the tractor and plough were standing. Brian Dallyn gave an interesting talk about the different parts and functions of the plough. Fr Mark blessed the tractor and plough and we all said 'God Speed the Plough'. We ended the service singing 'We plough the fields and scatter the good seed on the land.'

PARKING OUTSIDE THE FRONT OF ST MARY'S

On Sunday 6th February at Evensong people didn't think when parking in front of the church.

Some people did display blue badges but they invalidated them by parking up on the pavement causing people with wheelchairs and those with children's buggies to have to walk down a road with a blind corner. These people agree to follow the rules when getting their badge.

To those who just parked because they were too lazy to walk from the car park, or further down the road, please think when parking if your car gets damaged because wheelchairs or child's buggies have got stuck because you have parked on the pavement. Damage will be better than a dead child. Just a bit of thought would help.

MIDHURST ROTHER COLLEGE

Rotary Young Chef Competition

Midhurst Rotary College is a firm supporter of the Rotary Youth Competitions. The competitions run in a range of creative areas let young people's skills and flourish are perfect for budding chefs, photographers, writers, public speakers and musicians.

Year 10 GCSE Hospitality and Catering students competed against each other in the local heat of the Rotary Club Young Chef of the Year 2022. The aims of the competition are to learn how to cook a healthy meal, develop food presentation skills, consider food hygiene issues, develop organisational and planning skills and develop an ability to cope in a demanding situation. The task was to prepare in two hours, a three-course healthy meal comprising starter, main course and dessert for two people and costing less than £20.00.

After much heat in the kitchen, a wonderful array of menus and delicious delights were put before the judging panel, Bekim Shillova, owner of La Piazzetta restaurants in Petersfield & Midhurst, John Barrett, Rotary Midhurst and Petworth, and Natalie Bowers, MRC Teacher of Food Technology. ‘The students should all be very proud of what they cooked, all the food that was presented to judges was of a high standard and had excellent feedback from the judges’ said Joe Etienne, who teaches Year 10 GSCE Food Technology at MRC. ‘In addition to the prizes given to the 3 winners, all the finalists that took place in the competition will get to visit La Piazzetta in Midhurst to see how the kitchens operate and also get to try some of the food from the menu!

This is an exciting thing for students to do that will help them with their hospitality and catering exam as well as understanding.'

The College also takes part in the annual Rotary Young Photographer, Young Writer and Young Musician Competitions.

TIME TO GET WALKING AGAIN!

At this time of year we start to think about the mud drying up and getting out to walk in the beautiful English Countryside again, but where to find new and interesting walks?

Walking in Sussex <https://www.walkinginengland.co.uk/sussex> has hundreds of walks to download and print, free. It also has books of walks, details of all the walking groups in the county and much more. Whether you want to walk on your own or with a group all the information is there in one place.

John Harris (the custodian of the website) said 'There is so much walking information on the web but it is difficult to find. Walking in Sussex (part of the Walking in England website) has brought it together in one place so whether you are walking from home, or away on holiday, you will be able to find a walk suitable for you'. With walks from half a mile to twelve miles plus long, and a note of suitability for pushchairs and wheelchairs, everyone can find a walk to enjoy.

So, home or away, check out the websites and get walking!

ST MARY'S COFFEE MORNINGS

The coffee morning on Saturday 12th February raised £205.90 for church funds. Many thanks to all who helped, came, and spent.

The next one will be on Saturday 12th March which will be to raise money for Easter flowers. With no fund raising over the last two years, since the church reopened for services the ladies who produce such wonderful displays have provided the flowers themselves. Please come along and show your appreciation for all they do by raising money for Easter flowers.

FAMILY SUPPORT WORK

There have been some really positive stories for us in the last month, with several families who have been supported by FSW for a number of years finally able to leave us as they have reached a point when they are able to cope on their own. On the flip side, most of our practitioners have full waiting lists as the need for help grows, particularly with regards to financial security and ill health. The recruitment process for our new practitioner posts is still in progress, but we hope that our new staff will be able to begin working with us in April.

Lent will be with us soon and we are encouraging parishes to hold Lent lunches for us – if this is something you would be interested in, then please get in touch with Jo in the office on 01273 832963 or by email jo@familysupportwork.org.uk.

We are also looking forward to our Easter Walk on Easter Monday. If you would like to join us for this then all the information can be found on our website or by getting in touch with Jo.

Our foodbank is well stocked at the moment as we are still using our Christmas donations. If you are collecting food for us then please be advised that we can't take any more pasta, soup or baked beans at the moment. We are running low on coffee, cleaning products and table sauces but otherwise are very grateful that we are able to provide our families with comprehensive deliveries every week.

Thank you for all your support.

January's work in numbers

12 supported meetings with other agencies

14 group sessions held supporting 247 parents and 146 children

Prayer points

Pray that the interviews for the new practitioners' posts will go well and the right candidates will be appointed

Give thanks for a family who we have supported for 6 years that is now able to be signed off our books as they have made so much progress

NEWS FOR MARCH

Does anybody know of a bag pipe player who could help us please? The Petworth Town band has, for many years, led our Palm Sunday Procession but this year, very sadly they are not available. Music is such an important ingredient of our parade through the town. To sing 'A Capella' is probably beyond most of us. Therefore, we need to find a solution. All suggestions gratefully received. The Procession is on Sunday 10th April starting at 3.00 pm.

We are ideally looking for a local Band. Failing that, maybe to use a Bag-pipe player! Can anybody help here please?

MIDHURST ROTHER COLLEGE Community Day 2022

After an absence of 2 years, the Midhurst Rother College Community Day is back on the calendar for 2022. This year's event promises to be the biggest and best yet, with numerous requests for stalls being made within hours of details being released. A great turnout is anticipated at the event which will be held on Saturday 7th May from 10.00 am - 2.00 pm. It's a wonderful day when the College opens its doors to the local community and invites clubs, groups, businesses and agencies to come and display their wares and drum up interest in whatever they have to offer. Past activities and participants have included archery, an astrodome, climbing activities, army assault courses and many local sports clubs providing fun activities for all ages. There's always a wide range of local craftsmen showing off their crafts and giving the public the chance to have a go and lots of food and drink to taste and buy, not forgetting the animal zone of chickens, ducks, goats, pigs, giant snails and stick insects, which we hope will return this year. From its original incarnation as the Midhurst Grammar School Sustainability Day in 2007, the event has grown from strength to strength and MRC look forward to once again warmly welcoming the local community through its doors. Why not come along and see who wanted to join the crowd for a day of fun this year. The event is free to all to join and attend. If you belong to a club or group, own a business, or run an agency and would like to join us for this event, please email madeline.hathaway@mrc-academy.org for further details.

Nuthatch: the bird table buccaneer

by Michael Blencowe of the Sussex Wildlife Trust

Back garden birdwatchers know there's a pecking order on the peanut feeder. Coal Tits are elbowed out by Blue Tits who in turn are ousted by Great Tits. But when the Nuthatch shows up, everything scarpers. With its streamlined body, blue back, pink chest and black eye-stripe, the Nuthatch cuts a dynamic figure; a swashbuckling, bird table buccaneer. The weapon it wields is a stout, dagger-like beak but it's not designed for skewering birds. Nuthatches are nuts about nuts.

The Nuthatch's name comes from 'nut hacker' in reference to the bird's habit of jamming hazelnuts and acorns into tree crevices and then using its powerful bill to noisily smash them open. There's an old Sussex name which fits this manic, intense bird perfectly: Nutjobber. I have never seen this nutty little bird sitting still. They're so crazy about climbing that they're the only British bird that can actually climb headfirst down a tree.

At this time of year our garden birds become more vocal and aggressive as they claim and defend territories and croon their tunes to attract a mate. Spring lacks this urgency for the male Nuthatch. He hasn't stopped fighting all winter as he angrily defends his hectare of woodland. Nuthatches are monogamous too and the loyal pair soon dispense with spring serenades and get down to the hard work of making a home. Many birds start from scratch. Twigs and moss are laboriously collected and nests are painstakingly woven. Nuthatches however are happy to let someone else undertake the heavy construction work. Their residence of choice is a spacious tree cavity drilled and abandoned by a woodpecker. Sure, it needs a bit of work but the Nuthatches will make do and mend. The main problem is the front door. It's too big. This gaping hole can let in predators or Starling squatters who will happily turf out nesting Nuthatches.

So while the male keeps guard the female Nuthatch starts bricking up the entrance hole. Her bill is used like a plasterer's trowel to smear mouthfuls of mud until the terracotta porch is perfectly Nuthatch sized. She is a compulsive builder and if they move into a nestbox she still cannot resist plastering mud around the hole, even if it's already the right size.

And it's great to report on a bird that's actually increasing in number and range. Once restricted to south-east England, the Nuthatch now breeds in Scotland – probably assisted by the provision of garden peanut feeders as it marched north. And as Britain seemingly gets crazier by the day it's nice to know there's still space for a few more Nutjobbers.

DAFFODILS

Sitting in silence in a warm sunny room
With budding daffodils in vase on a table,
The air of tranquillity is not quite still.
Slight movement as outside shell, or calyx, splits ~
An only just heard crackling sound,
Reveals folded petals of a flower.
The next day, looking through magnifying glass,
Seeing iridescence on yellow surface
While the nose notes a fine scent.

GOOD FRUIT OR BAD FRUIT?

Jesus said:

"No good tree does not produce bad fruit, nor does a bad tree produce good fruit. Each tree is known by its own fruit..."

...Good people bring good things out of the good they stored in their hearts. But evil people bring evil things out of the evil they stored in their hearts. People speak the things that are in their hearts."

- Luke 6: 43-45

During LENT ask God to help you through His Holy Spirit to turn your hate to love, your impatience to patience and your unkindness to kindness, so we can be like a good tree that grows good fruit.
